ELEVATED OKANAGAN DINING

With over 40 years in the restaurant industry, Reg Henry dedicated a significant part of his life to delivering exceptional dining experiences and quality food in the Okanagan.

It is this love of food and a commitment to elevating the culinary experience in the region that has led to the creation of Erica Jane.

Showcasing the region's rich flavours and ingredients in seasonally-inspired menus, Erica Jane aims to capture the hearts and appetites of sophisticated food enthusiasts both near and far.

A fiercely loyal and accomplished restaurateur, Reg attributed his success to building deep relationships with his customers, colleagues, and staff. His sense of teamwork and his inherent desire to protect and make sure everyone around him is taken care of are just a few of his many qualities that are embodied in Erica Jane. You can see this represented in a local artist's rendition of his spirit animal where he is pictured with his daughter Erica. As you wander the restaurant, be sure to take notice of the décor as Reg's animal spirit lives on in Erica Jane.
